

Educational Courses

Introduction

Our forex education courses are structured to provide you with the ability to learn as little or as much as you want. Each course provides you with the ability to make profitable trades in the forex markets but they increase in knowledge and detail as you go through the different levels.

Forex Basics is structured for people who have had either very little or no experience of forex trading in the markets. This is designed to bring you up to speed with the forex industry, forex trading and gives a very good grounding in the basics of what forex trading is all about and provides you with a single trading strategy to put your knowledge into practice safely and easily. It really is the ideal way to start your forex trading journey.

The foundation education course is Earn As You Learn and this provides students with a lower cost, less demanding syllabus which will provide you with the tools to be able to earn an additional income around your work schedule. The course is scheduled over six weeks and you will receive each week a one-hour live webinar by our head trader. The structured syllabus and more details on this course are given below.

The Forex Trader course is our main educational forex trading course and will take you to a very good level as a trader with the ability to take substantial profits from the markets with the strategies that are provided. The course is provided by live webinar once a week by the UKTA head trader and is very interactive so you can speak directly with him on any aspect of the training. Each webinar is recorded and it will be sent to you after each session.

The Details

As you can see there is something for everyone no matter what your future ambitions are. The additional benefit is you get direct access to our head trader which is worth its weight in gold anyway.

You will be allocated a Skype group where you can then speak with all other members on the course. The webinar links will be provided to you on the Skype group and also recordings sent out after each session for your further training to embed the learning's from the session.

If you wish to join one of UKTA's courses please just click the link on that courses page and you will be able to make the payment. Once the payment has been received then you will get an introductory email with all the joining details of the course and webinar access.

If you would like a call back please fill in the call back form on the website www.uktradingacademy.com and we will arrange a time to speak with you further so you get any queries answered and gain a more detailed understanding.

Or gives us a ring on our direct line telephone number which is on the front of the website and talk to us directly about any aspect you want in relation to the courses.

The detailed syllabus for each of the courses is given below so you can see the breadth of teaching that is given and what you will achieve out of it by the end of the courses.

All webinars are recorded and sent to you after the session so you will be able to keep these for reference or if you missed a training session then there is no worries about missing a part of the course as you can watch the recording at your convenience.

Remember our aim is not to make you trading experts but make you experts in making money from trading

Fast Track Trader

The Fast Track Trader course is an intensive two-day training course held in UKTA's Training Centre in the heart of London. This course has one main aim and that is to teach the how the markets work and how to take profits from them using their world class institutional strategy. The training is revolutionary in its approach and delivery.

It really is fast track but students are assumed to have no knowledge of forex trading, so it takes everyone from the basics through to the strategy that takes consistent profits out of the market. You are taught the mechanics of the market and how the institutions take money out of the market constantly.

You will be provided institutional trading knowledge and given the tools that the big players use. This really is for students who want to get into trading quickly and start making profits safely and from day one. You will be taught in a specific way which if you do have some knowledge of trading then this will blow everything you have learnt before out of the water.

On top of this once the training days are over you are not left on your own, there is a six months support network set up to make sure you have understood and are using the strategy correctly so you are never on your own. If you don't quite understand something or need so questions answered then you are able to very quickly get the information you need.
